Have you ever felt stuck on how to communicate effectively to support cognitive and emotional growth with someone you support; either in your family, as a paid professional, or as a community natural support? Then come join us for the fun, interactive, and informative 2 hour training on creating Social Stories based on Carol Gray's model (<https://carolgraysocialstories.com>.) The training will focus on ways to introduce concepts, reinforce desired social behavior, and celebrate success!
